Liquid Ice was introduced to the British market from the US and is a cooling compression bandage known as an 'ice wrap'. Liquid Ice in USA was voted 'Sports Product of the Year' in 2002 by 1,500 American Sports journalists; it has taken the American market by storm.

It is used by top athletes, like tennis player Andy Roddick and basketball player Patrik Ewing, as well as US Special Forces, where it is included as part of their survival package.

The Liquid Ice EQ Vet Pack has been developed specifically for horses under the strict supervision of International Veterinary Surgeons. It is internationally acclaimed and the BETA Equestrian Product of the Year award winner in 2003. It has been used successfully in the United States in competition and has competed at the Olympics with the German and Swiss Olympic Teams.

Testimonial

"Henman Communications have assisted our sports injury brand with a more strategic approach to communications. Through targeted business development our advertising, direct marketing and sponsorship activities have increased the awareness of our Liquid Ice brand in the UK and as a result our sales revenue and client base has increased. I hope we will have the opportunity to retain Henman Communications again in the future."
